Inc. 5,000 List With Three-Year Sales Growth of 71.3%

NEW YORK, August 25, 2008 – Inc. today ranked Chameleon Technologies Inc. (www.chameleontechinc.com) for the second year in a row on its annual ranking of the 5,000 fastest-growing private companies in the country. The list is the most comprehensive look at the most important segment of the economy – America's independent-minded entrepreneurs. Taken as a whole, these companies represent the backbone of the U.S. economy.

"Our second annual Inc. 5000 continues the most ambitious project in business journalism," said Inc. 5000 Project Manager Jim Melloan. "The Inc. 5000 gives an unrivalled portrait of young, underreported companies across all industries doing fascinating things with cutting-edge business models, as well as older companies that are still showing impressive growth."

Chameleon Technologies is a talent force in the Pacific Northwest, matching technically skilled professionals to contract, contract-to-hire and permanent positions within well-known local brands across a variety of industries. The company has garnered recognition for its strategic growth and tremendous business success; being a minority-owned and diverse company; as well as one of the best places to work in the area. Chameleon's clientele, such as Microsoft, Costco, Safeco, Corbis, Housevalues.com, Drugstore.com, Marchex, INRIX, and more, benefit from the company's ability to provide the talent they need to effectively grow their business.

The 5000 companies that made the list reported aggregate revenue of $185 billion and median three-year growth of 147 percent. Most important, the 2008 Inc. 5000 companies were engines of job growth, having created more than 826,033 jobs since those companies were founded. Complete results of the Inc. 5000, including company profiles and a list of the fastest-growing companies that can be sorted by industry and region can be found at www.inc5000.com.

Hottest Regions for Fastest-Growing Companies

The New York metro area tops the Inc. 5000 list with the most companies of any city with 355. Washington, D.C. comes in a close second with 300 companies on the list; Los Angeles comes in third with 244 companies, and Atlanta (194 companies) and Chicago (189 companies) round out the top five. Interestingly, only 62 companies on the Inc. 5000 are not based in metropolitan areas.

Grand Rapids, Mich. leads the list with the highest median revenue of any metro area ($26.2 million, 16 companies), followed by San Antonio, Texas ($21.3 million, 25 companies), Baton Rouge, La. ($18.8 million, 14 companies), Houston ($17.1 million, 97 companies), and Kansas City, Mo.-Kan. ($16.5 million, 39 companies).
